Assets $10,462,531,75.

Amount of Income 6,227,071.

SURPLUS OVER LIABILITIES 2,675,999,48.

THE Ætna is the LEADING LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY in North Carolina.
Largest amount of Losses to Widows and Orphans!
The Largest Revenue to the States. And has by far the largest number when compared with 58 Companies reported officially by the Commissioners of New York and Massachusetts it will be seen that the Ætna ranks as one of the first Companies of the Continent. But two of the fifty-eight Companies permitted to do business in New York and Massachusetts had so large an income for the year 1868; but two had so large a number of Policies in force, but one among all those incorporated under the laws of the State of New York had so small a per centage of Expense to Income during the year 1868.

Its expenses are lower than most Companies', and consequently its ability to make and pay liberal dividends to the insured is greater than that of most other Companies.—It is one of the great Companies of the land in Income, in Assets, in Number of Policies, in Amount Insured, in solidity and Strength, in Soundness, Cheapness, Promptness, and Success. Persons contemplating this mode of investment in the future as in the past would do well to examine the claims of all and take a policy accordingly.

SPARKLING CATAWBA SPRINGS,
CATAWBA COUNTY, N. C.

THIS CELEBRATED WATERING PLACE, formerly called the North Carolina White Sulphur Springs, will be open for visitors on Tuesday, the first day of June next.
Being situated in the northwestern part of the State in a country remarkable for its beauty and healthfulness—these, together with the virtues of the waters, make it one of the most desirable watering places to be found.
The MINERAL WATERS of these Springs are the White and Blue Sulphur and Chalybeate or Iron, and they possess all the finest qualities of those waters, and are sovereign remedies for all diseases of the liver, bowels, stomach and kidneys, eruptions of the skin, scrofula, weakness, debility dyspepsia, rheumatism, &c.
The proprietor having spent a large amount in additional buildings and improvements generally, these Springs are now in a fine condition, rooms large and pleasant, and good cottages containing from two to six rooms each, well arranged for either large or small families.
Good TEN PIN ALLEYS, BILLIARD TABLES and other amusements.
FINE BATH HOUSES, for Pool, Plunge or Shower Bath, Sulphur Bath, Hot or Cold.
A GOOD BAND OF MUSIC
Will be at the Springs the entire season, and a good Physician permanently located for the benefit of invalids, who will have every attention.
Having secured the services of Mr. J. N. CARTER, of Virginia, who has had much experience and stands high as a Hotel keeper, visitors may rest assured that my table will be supplied with the best the market can afford, and everything done that will add to their pleasure and comfort.
The cars on the Western North Carolina Rail Road will leave Salisbury for Hickory Station, the Springs' depot, every morning, (Sundays excepted,) in connection with the North Carolina Railroad, avoiding stoppage or delay at Salisbury, and arrive at Hickory Station in time for breakfast, where good hacks will be in readiness to take passengers over a beautiful, well-shaded road to the Springs—a distance of six miles.
As an inducement for families and parties to spend two months or more, I have concluded to put board down at the following low rates:

BOARD:

For one single month,	$50 00
For two or more months, $40 per month, or at that rate.
Per week,	16 00
Per day,	2 50

Children under ten years of age and colored servants, half price. No charge for infants or children under two years of age.

ROBERT SOUTTER
OF GRANVILLE COUNTY,
Reading the importance of spreading the growth of Wheat in this County; and the farmers, knowing so well the absolute necessity of supplying themselves at an early period with "seed Wheat" of the finest quality, ready to plant in the Fall, the undersigned takes this early method of inviting application from farmers, for what they may require to plant next Fall, of the very "Select Seed Wheat" which he expects to deliver at moderate prices, from the crop growing now at his "Oakland Farm" near Townesville, in this County.
This Wheat was planted last Fall, with Guano, of seed selected in Baltimore with great care by my predecessor, Mr. Chas. H. R. Taylor, who paid $3,25 for it there. It has had the advantage of a heavy top-dressing in Spring of Chicago bone Fertilizer, and is now very promising.
Like the good Sorghum Seed which I have offered to the farmers of Granville, I hope the orders for my "Seed Wheat" may be equally attractive, to absorb all that I can expect to spare of it.
Address me at Kittrell's Springs, or Mr. Thos. W. Taylor, at Oakland Farm.

THE SENTINEL.

JOSIAH TURNER, Jr., EDITOR.

TUESDAY, JUNE 29, 1869.

LITTLEFIELD AND ABBOTT.

The Floridian announces the arrival of these two carpet beggers, with other strangers, at Tallahassee, Florida. The Governor of that State has convened the Legislature in special session. We think Milton Littlefield and Abbott can administer and sell out that little State in ten days; especially if they can get the Governor to go with them in their Railroad and Penitentiary schemes, to be paid for in State bonds. There is nothing so disgraceful and destructive, so immoral and corrupting as the carpet-bag system forced upon us by Congressional legislation and the cupidity of Wall Street. The sacking and burning of Sherman and his bummers, was bad enough, but the carpet-bag system of pillage, bribery and corruption far exceeds it. A worse or more shameful evil cannot afflict mankind. The carpet-bag system, in its evils and corruption, goes beyond all calculation in its mischief.

We say to the people of Florida, Littlefield and Abbott visit you for no good end or purpose. They are, with Holden, the authors, contrivers and plotters of the carpet-bag system which has been fastened upon North Carolina, a system which subordinates intelligence and virtue to ignorance and vice,—a system which forbids that any man, however capable, shall now be trusted, brought forward or employed, if he acted a decided part in the late troubles of his country, unless he will first debase and stultify himself.

The Floridian should make it known to all Florida, that Gen. Littlefield is charged with receiving $100,000 as a fee to lobby the Chatham Railroad bill through our Legislature, and he has never denied it. He is known to have kept a free bar room in the Capitol, where the "hands," members of the Legislature "so-called," both white and black could drink and sing—

> "Here's good liquor, strong and free,
> Milton is the man for me
> And I will have no other." &c.

All Florida should know that the Grand Jury of Wake County presented Milton for offering to tempt members of the Legislature with his free liquor and money. All Florida should know that when the Legislature, at its recent session, raised a Committee to inquire into the bribery and corruption which had been applied to its members, Milton left the City, and did not return until the Committee was discharged. All Florida, since Littlefield and Abbott are visiting the Legislature of that State, should know that a Republican Senator of the North Carolina Legislature declared, on the floor of the Senate, that "members had taken money for their votes." A bill which has recently passed the Legislature of Florida, called the Railroad State Aid Bill, clearly shows that Littlefield and Abbott have visited that State. The bill provides that the State will pay $20,000 per mile for the Road from Quincy to Pensacola, and on to some point in Alabama. The bill gives to the corporators all the Internal Improvement lands East of the Apalachicola river, for six miles on either side of the road, and all the State lands lying west of said River. $20,000 per mile will make about $4,000,000 the State will pay. How much land she gives no man in Florida knows, for it is not given by quarter sections or natural boundaries, but west of Rivers. No such bill could pass any Legislature, where the property, character and intelligence of the people are represented. Why should the State, as soon as the corporators begin work pay $4,000,000 in bonds, and deed away unsurveyed acres before they have any assurance that the Road will ever be completed.

This bill has all the features of the carpet bag system. Nothing but ignorance, and corruption could have secured its passage. It will make rich certain carpet-bag wanderes, whose fundamental maxim in politics is, that no honest native is to have any part or shadow, or name of interest in the State; except such an interest as requires him to pay burthensome taxes without representation.

Holden, dreading the restoration of the people to power, and the day when their tongues will be unloosed, and carpet bag enormities exposed, is said to be working for a breach between himself and them. Having partaken of all the corrupt advantage which the carpet bag system could give him, he will soon be crying shame on them and their system, as he now does on secession, after being for twenty years its strongest and most zealous advocate.

TROOPS FOR ROCKINGHAM.

The Governor sent his detectives and militia to Alamance. He now has twenty armed men in Jones county. Some of them are his paid detectives, others belong to the secret oath bound League of which the Governor is President. The Governor, we hear, is now getting up troops to invade Rockingham county. We heard, last week, in that county, that Judge Settle had threatened the Ku Klux with the militia. We don't think the Judge has had anything to do with this call. It is all politics', and intended to keep the negroes united in the election soon to take place. We doubt if there is a respectable man in the county of Rockingham who has called for the military. Chicken Stephens and Anthony Hayes may have done so, or Judge Tourgee, for it would be like him.

We hope the good people of Rockingham will not allow themselves to be betrayed into any act of indiscretion or violence by reason of armed men among them. We honestly believe that nothing would give Holden more pleasure than a collision between the citizens and his worthless militia. We feel sure that is what he desires. He itches for it; without it he feels that his oath bound Leagues must dissolve.

Let no man speak to or feed Holden's militia even for their money. Let them be forbidden to enter any man's house. When they come let Judge Settle, Anthony Hayes and the County Commissioners entertain them.

COMMENCEMENT AT DAVIDSON COLLEGE.

TUESDAY, June 24th, 1869.

The doors of Davidson College were thrown open to students for the first time in March, 1837, and the late Commencement was the thirty-third gathering thereunto of the public—the mothers to hear good sermons, the fathers to enjoy learned and deep discourses, the boys to admire the changes that "College" was working in their old companions, and the girls to dispense heart-aches, and carry home materials for sweet dreams that shall last till the dreams be one realities.

On Sunday, the beginning of this eventful week at Davidson College, the Baccalaureate sermon was preached for the benefit of the Senior Class. On this occasion, President McPhail took for his text St. Paul's exhortation to "take on the whole armor of God," Ephesians IV, 10-17. Dr. McPhail is of Scotch parentage, and inherits a Scotchman's love for, and facility in, metaphysical speculations; especially those of the school of Reid—the school of common sense. His extensive reading, his long continued and minute observations of the various forms of error, and his deep conviction of the essential malignancy of their opposition to truth, enabled him to address a class of more than ordinary promise, with peculiar power. The sermon was clear, definite and practical.

On Monday the public examinations of the Collegiate year were closed with those on Biblical studies.

On Tuesday the Trustees began their annual sessions. These were frequent and protracted during the week, but necessary on account of the unparalleled prosperity of the Institution. They agreed to meet again in October next to elect an additional Professor of Languages, and to fill the vacant Chair of Chemistry, &c.

Before the war, Davidson College was the richest Institution in North Carolina. It is so still, and its guardians have resolved that the young gentlemen of the State shall find it ready to afford them all the opportunities for education which were to be found at the late University of their native State.

Tuesday night was devoted to the exercises of the Eumenean and Philanthropic Societies. Only Alumni of the Societies and honorary members were present within their sealed doors. But they reported to outsiders that such debates, addresses and mysteries have been but rarely attended in those halls.

REV. DR. MORAN'S SERMON,

before the Williams' Association, on Wednesday morning, fully sustained his reputation as one of our most remarkable pulpit orators. The Association which secured his service on this occasion, fills the place usually occupied by a "Young Men's Christian Association," but, as it embraces, also, in its objects, the culture of a missionary spirit among its members and in the community in which it labors, the eloquent Divine, on this occasion, asked and answered the question, "Watchman! what of the night?" The answer was, there is night, but the morning cometh. There is night, because of the great multitudes which gross darkness covers; because of the small number professing the truth, even where it is proclaimed and because of the smaller number penetrated and controlled by it, where it is professed.

The work before those who desire and strive to have the Gospel preached to every creature is appalling to the eye of mere reason, because of the vastness of its scope, because of the minuteness of its precision, and because of the malignancy and variety of the opposition it encounters. But the work of evangelizing the world has been designed, commanded and maintained by Him to whom belongs the Power, the Kingdom and the Glory. Therefore to the eye of Faith, there is Hope, and to the heart of Faith there is Love which rejoices to see the powers in the world all contributing to the establishing of the great Kingdom of Peace. Among these powers were enumerated—the wealth and financial skill among men—the commercial activity that marks our time—the observations and speculations of the human intellect—and the great law of self propagation whereby a truth, which has not merely a subjective but also an objective being, renders the mind which possesses it restless, until its possession is shared with all others capable of its enjoyment. When these powers are seized and wielded by the Holy Spirit we may rest in quietness, assured that gross darkness shall be followed by a day-break, and this by a sun shine, and this by a glorious all comprehensive noon, whose brightness shall never pale. Dr. Moran's sermons are marked by a great breadth of generalization that cannot be contained by every eye. Hence many who are forgetful or ignorant of the great law of thought, that depth is necessarily the inverse of breadth, complain that such discourses are superficial. Many men have noticed the falling of an apple, but no one of them saw in it the displacement of Winter by Spring and Summer. So of the vast audience that sat for a long time motionless before Dr Moran. Few, very few, had ever before seen reason to bless God that men were fond of money, of commercial enterprises, of philosophical speculations, and of proselytism. So large an assemblage of North Carolinians as Dr. Moran saw last Wednesday morning can be seen nowhere in one room but at Davidson College, and such a sermon can be heard from no one in North Carolina but from Dr. Moran.

MAJ. GALES' ADDRESS

Before the Philanthropic and Eumenean Societies of Davidson College was, as was frequently remarked, "evidently the production of a gentleman, a patriot and a scholar." A distinct enunciation, an appropriate elocution, and a dignified and graceful delivery rendered the theme chosen for discussion, and the manner thereof, entirely acceptable. Major Gales has a right of inheritance to be listened to by the young men of our Southern States. This opportunity he improved to exhort those who had shown that they dared to die for their native State now to stay and live for it. The reasons for this exhortation were derived partly from the cold but intellectual doctrine of political economy and partly from a warm and affectionate suggestions of filial reverence. The orator contended that no State presented more numerous, or more varied fields for exertion, than North Carolina; that in no State was that exertion more amply or more satisfactorily rewarded, and that North Carolina needed all her sons as husbands for her daughters, as helps for her fathers, and as comforts for her mothers. She needed them to plough her fields, to develope her mines, to utilize her water falls, to enlarge her exchanges, to make and administer her laws, to offer health to the sick, knowledge to the ignorant, and religion to the immortal. It is one of the signs of the times that on this occasion and without collusion several of the speakers were moved to exhort our young men to stay at home and do good.—Besides the orator for commencement, six of the representatives of the Societies and of the graduates lifted up their voices in solemn protests against desertion of their native States by their associates. It is to be hoped that these exhortations and protests will not be in vain.

THE REPRESENTATIVES OF THE SOCIETIES,

did their best, looked their prettiest, spoke their properest, and gesticulated their gracefullest, each to secure honor for his own Society, on Wednesday night. And they were successful, so successful that the most intelligent agreed that the honours should be divided between the two Societies. These speakers and speeches were as follows:

A Word to the Sons of the Old North State—Wilson J. McKay, Harnett county, N. C.

I Can.—Robert A. Lowry, McMinn co., Tenn.

Woman's Influence.—Branch G. Clifford, North Carolina.

Christianity the Soul of Liberty.—Will H. Stewart, York county, S. C.

The Times in which we Live.—Melmoth F. Reinhardt, Pettis county, Mo.

The South.—Edwin W. Kerr, New Hanover co., N. C.

Where all did well it may be invidious to make distinctions. But it is only fair to the young men to record that Mr. McKay of the Philanthropic Society, and Mr. Stewart of the Eumenean were considered as having acquitted themselves with entire satisfaction to their audiences. The Societies whose various exercises develope good sense and good taste in the degree manifested by these representatives must maintain a very high standard for excellence.

THE SENIORS,

with their speeches, their diplomas, and their availability as sweethearts, form after all, the great centre of attraction at a Commencement. Sermons and Addresses and Representations are never honored by so large or so enthusiastic crowds as are the orations of Thursday. There is no such audience chamber in North Carolina, as is the Chapel in the great building at Davidson College. It will give comfortable seats to twelve hundred adults. On this occasion, as on the last two, there were fourteen or fifteen hundred souls within its capacious walls. The arrangement of the seats gave every ugly man a chance of seeing and every pretty girl a chance of being seen. Of the former there were very few this time, but of the others, there were so many and they looked so well that we wished that each one carried a mirror that she might have as many admirers as there were souls in the Chapel. It is no wonder that the Seniors did so well. If their successors do as well, they must be as popular with the fair critics of creation. The orations of the Seniors were as follows.

Latin Salutatory, with English Oration: Subject, "The Study of Mind."—Paul F. Winn, Lancasterville, S. C.

"A Plea Against Emigration from the South."—Alex. R. Banks, Chester, S. C.

Philosophical Oration: "Little Things."—Laban M. Hoffman, Gaston Co., N. C.

"Dignity of Man."—John F. Cannon, Charlotte, N. C.

"Agricultural Science."—Wm. H. Verner, Oconee Co., S. C.

"Common Sense."—Wm. H Davis, Salisbury, N. C.

"Tarde sed Tute."—Alfred L. Miller, Spartanburg, S. C.

"Fashions of the Times."—F. Brevard McDowell, Iredell Co., N. C.

"Law and Lawyers."—Alfred J. Morrison, Lincoln Co., N. C.

"A Night Scene."—Romulus M. Tuttle, Caldwell Co., N. C.

"The Culture of the Mind, the Duty and the Hope of the South."—John S. F. Verner, Oconee Co., S. C.

Conferring of Degrees.

"Has Pope's Essay on Man an Infidel Tendency?"—An Oration, with Valedictory Addresses."—John. W. Davis, Salisbury, N. C.

Benediction.

The Salutatory and the Valedictory orations generally indicate the best scholars in the class, the valedictory being usually at this time of higher honour than the Latin. But among the speeches Mr. Hoffman's gave most general satisfaction, while Mr. W. Davis' contained some capital hits at the follies of the day, and Mr. Morrison's enthusiasm clearly indicated the direction in which his gifts of mind and person may find their future exercise.

The class that appeared before the public on this occasion joined College in the Fall of that most eventful year, 1865. Many of its members have endured hardships in the camp, in the battle field, and in a prisoner's cell. All but one are communicants in the Church, and all have pursued their studies with such zeal, and have performed all the duties with such exactness as to secure the most hearty praise of all their Professors. The good will of the community they leave follows them, and it is hoped that the good will of the communities they approach await them. Our part of this country looks to its young men for a final and satisfactory reconstruction.

THE UGLY CLUB,

with its fun and the frolic of its public exhibition was the great attraction on Thursday night. Considering that this was a first effort, it merited the applause it received. Next year the expectations it arouses will be more nearly fulfilled, for then its speakers will have learned that brevity is the soul of wit—its "pretty man" will be exhibited in a cage to keep his admirers, especially the fair, at a proper distance; its "little man" will have more gain in his waistband and more tucks in his breeches; its "lazy man" shall be unable to sit up; its "ladies man" shall be worn out at his labors; its "conceited man" shall be talked to from the top of the Black Mountain, and its "ugly man's" hair shall stand still more aghast at his face.

The good order that pervaded the large assemblages of the week, by night and by day, was very remarkable. Indeed, good order seems to be the presiding genius at Davidson College. For the Faculty reported to the Trustees that no student had been "before" them for misdemeanor during the last two years. The vigilance, acutity and courtesy of the Marshal, (Mr. R. B. McAlpine, of Arkansas,) and his assistants, secured for all in the Chapel whatever of comfort the great and incessant demand for seats allowed. The Charlotte Brass Band enlivened the exercises with music of a quality that made those who heard it hope that the band will be encouraged to prolong its efforts to attain perfection. So that Davidson College may long be the place to hear the sweetest of sweet sounds, to learn the widest of wide truths, to know the gravest of the grave divines and to see the prettiest of pretty girls.

Ferdinand, the ex-King of Portugal, is not morganatically married to Fanny Elsler, as has been reported, but to Mademoiselle Elise Heussler, formerly an opera singer. A morganatic marriage only differs from the usual ceremony by the fact that the children do not inherit any right to assume the throne which may descend to the noble parent.

Facts From History---Statement of Edman Spangler, A Victim of Edwin M. Stanton---Record of Military Justice in 1865---How an Innocent Man was Treated During His Trial---Prison Life on the Dry Tortugas---Tortures Inflicted upon the Prisoners by Army Officers---Disgraceful Page in our Annals, &c., &c.

Special N. Y. World Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, June 23.

Edman Spangler, who was tried and sentenced by a military commission in May, 1865, on a charge of being engaged in the plot to assassinate President Lincoln, and pardoned by President Johnson, has prepared the following statement, asserting his innocence of all knowledge of the crime, and detailing the cruelties practised on the prisoners before and after conviction.

STATEMENT OF EDMAN SPANGLER.

I have deemed it due to truth to prepare for publication the following statement—at a time when I hope the temper of the people will give me a patient hearing—of my arrest, trial, and imprisonment, for alleged complicity in the plot to assassinate the late President Lincoln. I have suffered much, but I solemnly assert now, as I always have since I was arraigned for trial at the Washington Arsenal, that I am entirely innocent of any fore or after knowledge of the crime which John Wilkes Booth committed—save what I knew in common with everybody after it took place. I further solemnly assert that John Wilkes Booth, or any other person, never mentioned to me any plot, or intimation of a plot, for the abduction or assassination of President Lincoln; that I did not know when Booth leaped from the box to the stage at the theatre, that he had shot Mr. Lincoln; and that I did not, in any way, so help me God, assist in his escape; and I further declare that I am entirely innocent of any and all charges made against me in that connection. I never knew either Surratt, Payne, Atzerodt, Arnold, or Harold, or any of the so-called conspirators, nor did I ever see any of them until they appeared in custody. While imprisoned with Atzerodt, Payne, and Harold, and after their trial was over, I was allowed a few minutes' exercise in the prison yard. I heard the three units in asserting Mrs. Surratt's entire innocence, and acknowledge their own guilt, confining the crime, as they did, entirely to themselves, but implicating the witness, Weichman, in knowledge of the original plot to abduct! and with furnishing information from the Commissary of Prisoners' Department, where Weichman was clerk.

I was arrested on the morning of the 15th of April, 1865, and with Ritterspaugh (also a scene shifter) taken to the police station on E street, between Ninth and Tenth. The sergeant, after questioning me closely, went with two policemen to search for Peanut John (the name of the boy who held Booth's horse the night before) and made to accompany us to the headquarters of the police on Tenth street, where John and I were locked up, and Ritterspaugh was released. After four hours' confinement I was released, and brought before Judges Olin and Bingham, and told them of Booth bringing his horse to the theatre on the afternoon of the 14th of April (1865). After this investigation I said: "What is to be done with me?" and they replied: "We know where to find you when you are wanted," and ordered my release. I returned to the theatre, where I remained until Saturday, when the soldiers took possession of it; but as the officer of the guard gave an attache and myself a pass to sleep there, we retired at 10 P. M., and at 1 A. M a guard was placed over me, who remained until 9 A. M. Sunday morning, when I was released. I did not leave the theatre until Sunday evening, and on our return this attache (Carland by name) and myself were arrested by Detective Larner. Instead of taking us to the guard-house he said he would accompany us home to sleep there, but we all went to Police Headquarters on Tenth street, and when Carland asked if we were wanted, an officer sharply said "No." I returned to the theatre that night, and remained the next day till I went to dinner, corner Seventh and G streets. That over I remained a few minutes, when Ritterspaugh (who worked at the theatre with me) came, and meeting me said: "I have given my evidence, and would like now to get some of the reward."

I walked out with Ritterspaugh for half an hour, and on returning to lie down left word that if any one called for me to tell them that I was lying down. Two hours after I was called down stairs to see two gentlemen who had called for me. They said that I was wanted down steps. On reaching the side walk they placed me in a hack and drove rapidly to Carroll Prison, where I was confined a week. Three days afterwards Detective, or Colonel, Baker came to my room, and questioned me about the sale of a horse and buggy (which belonged to Booth), and I told him all about it freely and readily. On the day following I was called into the office of the prison in order to be recognized by Sergeant Dye, who merely nodded his head as I entered and then he left. (Dye subsequently testified that he was sitting on the steps of the theatre just before Booth fired the shot, and to seeing mysterious persons about.) I was allowed on the fourth day of my imprisonment to walk the prison yard, but from that evening I was closely confined and guarded until the next Saturday at midnight, when I was again taken to the office to see a detective, who said: "Come, Spangle, I've some jewelry for you." He handcuffed me with my arms behind my back, and guarding me to a hack I was placed in it and driven to the Navy Yard, where my legs were manacled and a pair of Lillie handcuffs placed on my wrists. I was put in a boat and rowed to a monitor, where I was taken on board and thrown into a small, dirty room, between two water closets, and on to a bed of filthy life preservers and blankets, with two soldiers guarding the door. I was kept there for three days. I had been thus confined three days on the vessel when Captain Munroe came to me and said: "Spangler, I've something that must be told, but you must not be frightened. We have orders from the Secretary of War, who must be obeyed, to put a bag on your head."—Then two men came and tied up my head so securely that I could not see daylight.—I had plenty of food, but could not eat with my face so muffled up. True, there was a small hole in the bag near my mouth, but I could not reach that, as my hands were wedged down by the iron. At last, two kind-hearted soldiers took compassion on me, and while one watched the other fed me. On Saturday night a man came to me and, after drawing the bag so tight as to nearly suffocate me, said to the guard, "Don't let him go to sleep, as we will carry him out to hang him directly." I heard them go up on the deck, when there was a great rattling of chains, and other noises; and while I was trying to imagine what was going on, and what they intended to do, I was dragged out by two men, who both pulled me at times in opposite directions. We, however, reached a boat, in which I was placed, and were rowed a short distance, I could not say then where we stopped, for my face was still covered. After leaving the boat, I was forced to walk some distance, with the heavy irons still on my legs. I was then suddenly stopped, and made to ascend three or four flights of stairs; and as I stood at the top waiting, some one struck me a severe blow on the top of the head, which stunned and half threw me over, when I was pushed into a small room, where I remained in an unconscious condition for several hours. The next morning some one came with bread and coffee. I remained here several days, suffering torture from the bag or padded hood over my face. It was on Sunday when it was removed and I was shaven. It was then replaced. Some hours after General Hartranft came and read to me several charges; that I was engaged in a plot to assassinate the President, and the day following I was carried into a military court still hooded before all of its members. I remained but a short time, when I was returned to my cell for another night and day and then again presented in this court. Mr Bingham, Assistant Judge-Advocate, read the charges against me, and asked if I had any objection to the Court, and I replied "No," and made my plea of "not guilty." They then wished to know if I desired counsel, and, when I answered affirmatively, General Hunter, the president of the the Court, insisted that I should not be allowed counsel. He was, however, overruled, but it was several days before I was permitted legal aid, the Court in the meanwhile taking evidence with closed doors. On every adjournment of the Court, it only for an hour, I was returned to my cell and the closely fitting hood placed over my head. This continued till June 10, 1865, when I was relieved from the torture of the bag, but my hands and limbs remained heavily manacled.

On one Sunday, while I was confined at this place (the Washington Arsenal,) I was visited by a gentleman of middle stature, rather stout, with full beard and gold-framed spectacles. He noticed my manacles and padded head. I afterwards learned that he was Mr. Stanton, the Secretary of War. It is proper to state that when the hood was placed on me. Captain Munroe said it was by order of the Secretary of War. My first thought was that I was to be hung without trial, and the hood was preparatory to that act.

The first time I ever saw Mrs. Surratt was in the Carroll Prison yard, on Capitol Hill. I did not see her again until we were taken into court the first day at the arsenal. My cell was on the same corridor with hers, and I had to pass it every time I was taken into court. I frequently looked into her cell, a small room about four feet wide by seven feet long. The only things in her cell were an old mattress laid on the bricks and an army blanket. I could see the irons on her feet, as she was generally lying on the mattress, and was the last one brought into court. She occupied a seat in court near the prison door. The seat was twelve inches high, and the chains between the irons on her feet were so short that she always had to be assisted to her seat. She was so sick at one time that the court was compelled to adjourn.

On the 17th of July, about midnight, I was conveyed to a steamboat, and arrived the next day at Fortress Monroe, and was thence taken to the gunboat Florida. The irons on my arms were temporarily removed, but Captain Dutton, in charge of the guard, ordered heavy Lillie irons to be placed on me, when General Dodd, chief officer in charge, more humanely countermanded his order and had the irons again removed from my arms. I was placed for security in the lower hold of the vessel and compelled to descend to it by a ladder. The rounds were far apart, and, as the irons on my feet were chained but a few inches apart, my legs were bruised and lacerated fearfully. The hold where I was confined was close and dirty, but after two or three days I was allowed on deck in the daytime, but was closely guarded. I was allowed to speak to no one of the crew. We arrived at Fort Jefferson, on the Dry Tortugas, and were handed over to Colonel Hamilton, commanding, who placed me until the next day in a casemate. The next day I was brought before Colonel H, who informed me that he had no more stringent orders concerning me than other prisoners confined there.

I managed to get along comfortably for awhile, though to some of the prisoners the officers were very cruel. One man by the name of Dunn, while helping in unloading a government transport, got hold of some liquor and imbibed too freely; for which he was taken to the guard house and tied up to the window frame by his thumbs for two hours. General Hill then ordered him to be taken down and be made to carry a thirty two pound ball, but as the hanging had deprived him of the use of his thumbs, he was unable to obey. The officers, however, put two twenty-four pound balls in a knapsack and compelled him to carry them until the sack gave away from the weight of the iron. He was then tied up by the wrists and gagged in the mouth by the bayonet from 8 P. M. till the next morning. He was then taken down and thrown into the guard-house, but was so exhausted that he had to be removed to the hospital. It was decided to amputate three of his fingers, but this was reconsidered. He lost, however, the use of his thumb and two fingers. This punishment was inflicted by Major McConnell, officer of the day, and was carried out by Sergeant Edward Donnelly.

Another poor prisoner named Brown, was once excused by the doctor from work on the plea of illness, but the Provost Marshal insisted and finding him too ill and lacking strength made him carry a thirty-two pound ball. He staggered under the weight and was compelled from weakness to put it down. He was then taken to the wharf and with his legs tied together and his hands tied behind him, a rope was placed around him and he was thrown into the water and then dragged out. This was done three or four times, he begging for mercy most piteously. He was finally jerked out of the water and ordered to return to his ordinary work. The poor wretch crept off apparently thankful for any escape from such torments. Captain Jos. Ritten house was officer of the day, and his orders were carried out by Corporal Spear.

During the latter part of last October I was placed in irons and compelled to work with an armed sentinel over me. I did not know the reason for this, for I was unconscious of having given offense, and had conformed to every regulation. I was then closely confined and allowed to communicate with no one for four months. The pretence for this, I afterwards learned, sprang from an attempt of Dr. Mudd to escape.

Colonel St. George Leger Grenfel, aged 65 years, was taken sick and went to the Doctor to get excused from work. The Doctor declined to excuse him. He then applied to the Provost-Marshal, who said that he could not excuse him if the Doctor couldn't. Grenfel then tried to work and failed. They then took him to the guard-house, tied him up for a half a day, and then took him to the wharf, tied his hands behind him, tied his legs to together, and put a rope around his waist. There were three officers, heavily armed, who drove spectators from the wharf: I could see and hear them from my window. The Colonel asked them if they were going to throw him into the water, and they answered, "Yes." He then jumped in, and because he could not sink, they drew him out and tied about forty pounds of iron to his legs, and threw him into the water again, and after he had sunk twice they pulled him out again, and then compelled him to go to work. The officers who had him in hand were, Lieutenant Robinson, Lieutenant Pike, and Captain George W. Crabb, assisted by Sergeant Michael Gleason, and assistant military storekeeper G. T. Jackson, who tied the iron on his legs. Captain Samuel Peebles tied up Grenfel for saying that "he was capable of doing anything." Colonel Grenfel was forced to scrub and do other menial work when he proved he was so ill as to have refused to eat his rations for a week. All of the officers hated Grenfel on account of a letter which appeared in a New York paper, which they said Grenfel wrote, about tying up the prisoner Dunn—which letter was truthful, as others and myself were witnesses to the details it related. One very stormy night Grenfel, with four others, escaped in a small boat and was evidently drowned near the fort. His escape was discovered but the storm was so severe that it was deemed too dangerous to pursue them, although a steamer was at the wharf. Grenfel frequently declared his intention of running any risk to escape, rather than, to use his own words, "to be tortured to death at the fort." These are only two or three instances of the many acts of cruelty practised at the fort. During my imprisonment at Fort Jefferson I worked very hard at carpentering and wood ornamental work, making a great many fancy boxes, &c., out of the peculiar wood found on the adjacent islands; the greater portion of this work was made for officers. By my industry in that direction, I won some favor in their eyes. I was released in March of the present year by executive clemency.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—W. H. Jones & Co. advertise several desirable articles in the Grocery line.

Those interested will not overlook the call for a meeting of the Building and Loan Association on Friday night.

Meeting To-night.

We hope our friends will not forget the meeting at the Court House, to-night, nor neglect to come and assist in the appointment of delegates to the District Convention, at Franklinton, to appoint a candidate to fill the vacancy in this Senatorial District.

THE EXCURSION.—The excursion of the Baptist Sunday School of this City, to Ridgeway, on Saturday, was, we are told by many who were "along," a very pleasant affair. Everything passed off agreeably and without any accident to mar the pleasure of the occasion.

COTTON BLOOM.—A cotton blossom was exhibited in Wilmington, Saturday, from the farm of Mr. Jno. L. McCall, of Shoe Heel, Robeson County.

Speaking of cotton reminds us that Mr. Green, of Franklin, showed us, last week, two stalks of cotton from his farm, measuring about fourteen inches in height, with squares fully developed.

NEXT PRESIDENCY.—The Standard of Monday morning, nominates, as the next Presidential ticket, Gen. Grant for President, and ——Wm. W. Holden for Vice President. "What a tail our cat's got."

A LITTLE MORE FIZ.—After repeated ringing of the Court House bell last night, somebody, the Lord knows who, gathered there and appointed committees preparatory to a fourth of July celebration. The committees, as published in the Standard are mostly, if not entirely, of the rad and negro stripe, and we suppose they design to monopolize the eclats and glory of the occasion. We presume our Conservative and Democratic fellow citizens will hardly transform themselves into tin canisters to dangle at the canine extremity of any such concern. We glory in the memorable day, and honor the names of those who made it a day sacred to Americans, and hence we detest that spirit which would desecrate it to low partisan exhibitions.

OAK CITY COUNCIL F. OF T.—At a regular meeting of this Council last night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing six months:

Theo. N. Ramsay, President.
Theo. H. Hill, Ex-President.
N. B. Broughton, Associate.
Rev. J. J. Carden, Chaplain.
W. M. Udry, Secretary.
D. S Waitt, Financial Scribe.
Joseph A. Harris, Treasurer.
Mathew Moore, Conductor.
T. K. Waitt, Assistant Conductor.
W. A Jones, Inside Sentinel.
P. W. McGowan, Outside Sentinel.

The installation of officers will take place at Temperance Hall on Monday night next.

WE HAVE on hand the opinion of Chief Justice Pearson, in the case of S. S. In State vs. Haughton, N. Hanover, no error, judgment affirmed.

DROWNED.—A negro man, about 21 years old, was drowned in Phifer's pond near this city, on Friday last. He was attemping to float on the pond on a plank in company with another boy, when he slipped off, and, being unable to swim, was drowned.—Charlotte Democrat.

The Superintendent of the Wilmington and Weldon road gives notice that excursion trains can be obtained by parties of citizens desiring to make trips in the country.

W. C. & R. RAILROAD.—We are gratified to learn that B. S. Guion, Esq., the Engineer and Superintendent of the Western Division of this Road, will soon commence surveying the route from Cherryville to Shelby, and we entertain the hope that the work will be pushed forward so as to complete the Road to Shelby at an early day.—Char. Democrat.

Larkins and Price and some of their Radical supporters, are expected to "stump it" on the sound in anticipation of the coming Legislative canvass. They seem to have determined to take time by the forelock, and in anticipating the opposition wing muster their whole strength and prepare for the contest.—Wilmington Journal, Saturday.

PUBLIC AID TO THE RINK.—The carts of the city were yesterday engaged in hauling benches from the City Hill to the velocipede rink for the accommodation of the audience at the exhibition last night. Public carts and public property loaned to the private enterprise of an official—where will such audacity end? or when will this system of favoritism cease?—Wilmington Journal.

I. O. O. F.—It will no doubt be of interest to the order of Odd Fellows in this city and vicinity, says the Wilmington Journal of Saturday to know, that on the 17th instant Deputy Grand Sire Wm. L. Smith and Past Chief Patriarchs A. Paul Repiton and Jno. C. Wood, of this city, instituted an Encampment at Tarboro'—The branch so instituted is known as Repiton Encampment, No. 13, named, we suppose, in honor of Rev. A. Paul Repiton, of this city.

CROPS IN EDGECOMBE.—The following extract of a letter from a gentleman in Edgecombe county to a friend in this City, exhibits a hopeful prospect of the crops in that county:

"I am glad to hear you have such a good showing for a Fair. * * The prospect for cotton and corn in this county is good—for corn, very good, and for cotton I can speak a most as positively. June has been most propitious for it, and it is now nearly or quite as large as usual to this date. With a hot, dry summer and late fall, you will hear of a good crop in Edgecombe."

LARGE CONFLAGRATION.—About half past two o'clock, Friday afternoon, the store of Mr. John O. Gardner, on the market wharf, was struck by lightning. Though the rain was descending in torrents at the time, the building rapidly ignited, and in a few minutes it was all ablaze. The fire companies turned out promptly and went at work with a will; but notwithstanding the great exertions of the firemen the store, its contents and several smaller buildings, were burned to the ground. The adjoining store of J. M. Rulfison barely escaped destruction, while a third was torn down to prevent the spread of the flames.—Newbern Jour. of Com.

STOCKHOLDERS' MEETING.—The second day's proceedings of the annual meeting of the stockholders of the A. & N. C. Railroad, commenced at Beaufort, yesterday, by the committee on proxies making its report.—Only 40 stockholders were found to be present, representing 788 shares in person and 16 928 by proxy. This made the total number of shares represented 17,716, and the number of votes 1,304.

The question as to who should cast the State vote was mooted. Col. Wm. J. Clarke, appointed as State proxy by Gov. Holden, and C. L. Harris, Superintendent of Public Work, both claimed it. Col. Clarke supported his claims in a lengthy speech, and was replied to by John H. Haughton, Esq., and others of the stockholders. After the debate concluded, a vote was taken and the position of Mr. Harris was sustained by an overwhelming majority. Col. Clarke entered a protest against this action.

The vote on consolidation was then taken and resulted in the adoption of the measure by a vote of more than twelve hundred for. Only seventy eight votes, all told, were cast against it.

A committee of three, consisting of Messrs. J. H. Haughton, John Hughes and R. F. Lehman, with three alternates, was appointed to confer with stockholders of the North Carolina Railroad in regard to consolidation, and urge the measure upon their favorable consideration.

The next business of special importance was the election of four Directors. The vote was taken and resulted in the election of Messrs. A. G. Hubbard, J. A. Gray, B. F. Parrott and Dr. M. F. Arendell.

Mr. Harris and Col. Clarke then arose and each asserting his right, announced the State Directors. Both named the same parties. They are the same as those appointed last year.

Newbern was chosen as the next place of meeting, a vote of thanks was tendered the officers of the road and meeting, and the stockholders adjourned.

The French government has officially announced that it is in treaty with the Postmaster General at Washington for a liberal revision of the postal tariff.

The marriage of Lord Byron's only grand-daughter, Lady Anne Isabella Noel King Noel, has just taken place, and she is now Lady Anne Blunt. Her mother was Lord Byron's only daughter, the Ada he loved so passionately.

Ex-Senator A. G. Brown, of Mississippi, denies emphatically Mr. Pollard's statement that prior to the assault upon Fort Sumter a number of senators and representatives from Southern States held secret caucuses in Washington and agreed upon the plan of separation.

LIBERAL BEQUEST.—The St. Louis Democrat states that on Friday last, Mr. F. Binkhardt, a wealthy German farmer, of Ridge Prairie, East St. Louis, after providing most bountifully for his family, left in his will the large sum of forty thousand dollars to his Holiness, the Pope of Rome.

HON. JEFFERSON DAVIS'S HEALTH.—Intelligence received from Hon. Jefferson Davis, of date as late as the 12th of June, is to the effect that his health is not at all good; indeed, his condition is said to be one of extreme weakness. It is said to be Mr. Davis's intention, if able, to summer in Canada, and to spend the coming winter in Mississippi. He is now in Paris.

The executors of the late James Guthrie have made a partial return to the United States account, from which it appears that Mr. Guthrie died possessed of nearly $630,000 worth of personal property, besides a large amount of valuable real estate, including three whole squares and several lots in the city of Louisville and over 17,000 acres of land in Texas.

A QUEER FASHION.—Horsemen hereabouts have taken to cutting off their horses' tails in the bluntest, most uncouth manner possible. The tails are sheared squarely off, and hang in an awkward manner, completely destroying the beauty of the animal. But it appears to be the fashion, and as such will doubtless prevail.—N. Y. Cor. Chicago Times.

EXPLORATION OF THE AMAZON.—A small iron steamer is now being fitted up at Wilmington, N. C., by a number of Southern capitalists, and will shortly sail from that port, with a number of scientific men on board, to explore the head waters of the Amazon, with a view of attracting attention to the commercial resources of that country.

SITE FOR A NEW EXECUTIVE MANSION.—The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette says: "The President and members of the Cabinet have been looking over the ground to find a site for a new Executive Mansion which can be recommended to Congress, and are understood to be substantially agreed upon a location in the northwestern part of the city."

CHILD STOLEN!
ONE THOUSAND DOLLARS REWARD will be given by its bereaved Mother, for his safe return. Was missing from home on the 6th of October, 1865, and nothing has since been heard direct from him, but information has been received that such a little Boy was seen to pass through Oxford, in the possession of a wagoner, and is now supposed to be in Granville, Person, Orange, Guilford, Rockingham, N. C., or Halifax County, Va. When taken away he was four years old, a beautiful fair skin, blue-eyed boy. Kind reader, is there such a boy in the family of any wagoner in your neighborhood?

SAY OF THE BROOKLYN LIFE!

"A Company that makes such endorsements on its policies, gives the strongest pledge that it will fulfil its trust faithfully, and keep its reserves sufficient."—HON. ELIZUR WRIGHT.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has placed itself in the vanguard of insurance reform, and is the first Company that has done full and complete justice to the insured."—INSURANCE TIMES, Jan. 1869.

THE BROOKLYN LIFE, ALONE OF ALL OTHER LIFE INSURANCE COMPANIES, GUARANTEES A DEFINITE SURRENDER-VALUE IN CASH, AND EVERY POLICY ISSUED BY THAT COMPANY, BEARS A CERTIFICATE STATING WHAT THIS EXACT WORTH WILL BE IN DOLLARS AND CENTS, AT ANY TIME, AFTER THE PAYMENT OF TWO OR MORE PREMIUMS.

"The BROOKLYN LIFE has made no half-way work of the adoption of this inestimable feature. It is noteworthy, in this connection, as a merited tribute to the excellent Company (Brooklyn Life,) which has so gallantly raised the standard of reform in Life Insurance, that we find in the whole list of existing Companies, few competitors which deserve so much credit in respect of economy of management, or care, skill and judgment in the selection of risks."—INS. The BROOKLYN LIFE has paid, and now pays to its policy-holders, LARGER DIVIDENDS than ever before paid by a Life Insurance Company!

Dividends are paid IN CASH, or applied to the permanent increase of the policy, or left with the Company to accumulate at interest, in either way, at the option of the policy-holder.

LIFE INSURANCE.

NATIONAL

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
OF THE
UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chartered by Special Act of Congress, Approved July 25th, 1868.

CASH CAPITAL,
$1,000,000,
PAID IN FULL.

It is no longer a question with any man, who tenderly loves his wife and children, who considers how helpless would be their condition in case of his death, as to the duty of taking out a LIFE POLICY, but as to which Company he shall pay his money.

If he reflects a moment he will conclude to patronize the Company which shows the greatest degree of vitality, which extends its business over the largest area, which is a Home Company in every locality; which furnishes insurance at the least cost; which issues no policies that are forfeitable should he be unable next year, or any subsequent year to pay his renewal; and which is undoubtedly able to meet ALL ITS PROMISES.

With these feelings and views, he looks over the newspapers, and, by the time he gets through reading the advertisements of Mutual or Mixed Companies, he finds his mind so fuddled that he is at a loss where to go or what to do. He can not comprehend one-half that is written, and concludes that none but Actuaries, who are familiar with the principles upon which Life Insurance is based can comprehend or explain anything about dividends and his liability for notes given in part payment of premiums. In his dilemma, he took into the plan adopted by the

LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY,
U. S. A.,

and finds just what he wants:

An ALL-CASH PLAN, reduced to the LOWEST MINIMUM Rate, like any commodity in Market, so much Insurance for so much Money. No notes to give; no interest to pay; no anxiety about Assessments; no apprehension of his Policy being forfeited next year if he does not pay his annual Renewal; and the RATES so much LOWER than other Companies, that he realizes a larger Dividend, IN ADVANCE, than other Companies can pay him in the future.

He finds that, instead of this UNCERTAIN PROMISE, and present high rate, that the presents a certain and definite sum for a much lower rate, and puts up its paid up Capital of $1,000,000

NATIONAL

as a guarantee fund, that its contracts will be fulfilled, and, like thousands of others, cheerfully calls on their Agent to make his application for a Policy. Hence the unprecedented and most wonderful success of the NATIONAL as contrasted with the older and Mutual Companies.

The Company issued its first policy on the 1st of August, 1868, and up to March 1st, 1869, it had issued 3,582 policies.
Amount insured, $10,005,550.00
Total Premiums, 350,117.03

The whole number issued by the Connecticut Mutual in the first year of its existence was 892
By the Mutual Benefit of New Jersey, 693
" New England Mutual, 345
" Phœnix Mutual, 335
" Massachusetts Mutual, 312
" Equitable of New York, 277

The Mutual Life, of New York, in the first year of its existance, only issued 470 policies.
In its 10th year, 1,360 "
And in its 20th year, 2,842 "
this latter being 690 less than was issued by the NATIONAL in its first seven months.

Sentinel.

PUBLISHED AT THE CAPITAL OF THE STATE,
Daily, Semi-Weekly and Weekly.

NEW ARRANGEMENT.

The RALEIGH SENTINEL having passed under the Editorial management of the undersigned, it will, from the present date, be conducted by him.

It will be the zealous and fearless advocate of the CONSTITUTION of the United States, seeking to bring the people back to their ancient reverence for that immortal instrument, and to restore the policy of the country to that honored standard, as the only guarantee of National prosperity.

It will do justice to the men and measures of the present day, whenever they may merit it, but it will unsparingly lash and denounce all who set themselves up in opposition to the Federal Constitution, and hold up to the public indignation corruption and imbecility in high places.

It will ardently seek the promotion of the best interests of North Carolina,—moral, educational, material and political.

THE LATEST NEWS

From every quarter, both by mail and telegraph, will be carefully collated and presented.

Full and correct market and financial reports will be given.

And, in one word, no effort will be spared to make the SENTINEL, in all respects, a reliable

NEW METHOD OF WASHING CLOTHES WITHOUT LABOR.

THE AUTOMATIC
CLOTHES WASHER AND BOILER.

THIS BOILER IS MOST EFFECTUAL, reliable and universally recommended. It can be used on any Stove or Range, in any boiler, and the LOW PRICE of the article places it within the reach of every family.

This Boiler operates upon purely philosophical principles, is self-acting, and dispenses with labor and the wear of the clothes.

The hot suds and steam, by the action of heat, are driven up through tubes, poured upon the clothes, and forced through the fabric with astonishing rapidity, cleansing all articles, from the finest laces to the best blankets. For Flannels it is invaluable, as it does not full them as in the old process of rubbing and pressing.

The time required for cleansing a boiler full of clothes is twenty to thirty minutes, and nearly three hundred gallons of boiling suds are forced through the fabric, thoroughly loosening and eradicating the dirt WITHOUT LABOR or friction. A thorough rinsing finishes the process.

Washing day will no longer be a terror and dread to housewives. The cost of the Boiler will soon be restored in the SAVING OF TIME AND LABOR, and the great saving in the wear of clothes.

The great value of this invention appears so clear, and appeals so directly to common sense, that we have deemed it unnecessary to accompany its introduction with numerous letters of approval, &c.

No invention has met with such ready sale and given such satisfaction. Call at LOUGEE & BROTHER'S, and see its wonderful operations.—We have the exclusive right to sell and manufacture in the state.
